

External Links

LEGEND

-  = Francophone resources available
-  = Video resources available
-  = Interactive resources available (quiz, worksheet, game, etc.)

CIVIX citizenship education resources (, , )

<http://civix.ca/resources/>

Famou5 Foundation resources (, )

<http://www.famou5.ca/resources>

Agricultural education resources ( – limited, , )

<https://www.alberta.ca/agricultural-education-resources.aspx>

In particular, Wonderville is a great interactive resource for STEM learning and all services are currently free to help with education during the Covid pandemic: <https://wonderville.org/>

Live&Learn 3 levels of government summary with quiz ()

<https://livelearn.ca/article/about-canada/canadas-three-levels-of-government/>

Department of Justice Charter graphics and learning resources ()

<https://www.justice.gc.ca/eng/csj-sjc/rfc-dlc/ccrf-ccd1/resources-ressources.html>

Parliament of Canada resources (, )

<https://lop.parl.ca/About/Parliament/Education/teacher-resources-e.html>

In particular, the Bill on the Hill interactive activity can be completed in Google Hangouts (or a similar platform) as a class through screen sharing and open discussion (flash player must be enabled): <https://lop.parl.ca/About/Parliament/Education/BillOnTheHill/flash-e.asp>

The Monarchist League of Canada student page ()

<https://www.monarchist.ca/index.php/students-and-teachers/canada-s-monarchy>

National Film Board

https://www.nfb.ca/film/national_scream/

This fun 1980 Mockumentary talks about national identity and symbolism. Because it's done in the style of a news report it's also a great tool to discuss the role of the media.

https://www.nfb.ca/film/ballad_of_crowfoot/

A 10 minute music video about Chief Crowfoot. This one hails from 1968, so some language is dated, but it's still a nice, engaging intro into First Nations issues here in Alberta.

https://www.nfb.ca/film/citizen_sam/

This documentary follows the campaign trail of a man running to be mayor of Vancouver. It's a great inside look into the life of a candidate in an election. This film does contain some adult language and discussion of topics such as drug addiction as an election issue on the campaign trail.

WE Schools@home (, )

<https://www.we.org/en-CA/our-work/we-schools/at-home/>

WE Schools is an organization that partners with schools to create social change.