Part 4: Written Response

Please provide your personal response to the questions below

Question 1: Personal Incentive

Use the list below to prioritize your reasons for wanting to attend the Teachers Institute (1-5)

- Develop my personal understanding of Alberta’s parliamentary system
- Gain first-hand experience in the topics of democracy and provincial politics
- Build a professional network with Legislature staff and other educators with similar interests
- Further commitment to ongoing professional development and leadership opportunities
- Explore resources, activities and teaching strategies to implement in the classroom

Question 2: Approach to Teaching

What is your overall teaching philosophy?

Question 3: Professional Innovation

Describe an effective teaching strategy or activity that you have developed or adapted specifically for use with your students.

Question 4: Workplace Collaboration

Identify a professional situation that required you to collaborate with others. What was your approach to this situation, and what was the outcome of this approach?

Question 5: Knowledge Sharing

Participants of the Teachers Institute are expected to share the knowledge they gain through the program. How will you ensure that your students, your school and your wider education community benefit from your time at the Alberta Legislature?
